Announcing Our

2008-2009 Season

City of Angels

Sept. 26 – Oct. 11, 2008

This musical murder mystery set in 1940's Hollywood won the Tony Awards for Best Musical, Best Musical Score, and Best Book in 1990. It's a loving spoof of the film noir private eye movies of that era with book by Larry Gelbart and lyrics by David Zippel, set to Cy Coleman's steamy score.

The Secret Garden

Nov. 21 – Dec. 6, 2008

The 1991 Tony award-winning Broadway musical based on the timeless Frances Hodgson Burnett story of an orphaned English girl, taken in by her brooding uncle, who unravels the secrets of his gloomy manor house and awakens hope in her invalid cousin by bringing his mother's neglected garden back to life. A rarely-seen gem of a musical by Lucy Simon and Marsha Norman.

Over the Tavern

Mar. 6 – 21, 2009

Buffalo's own Tom Dudzick's comedy about growing up Catholic in Buffalo. It was a smash locally and became a hit all around the country. At once heart-rending and gut-splitting. Back by popular demand; don't miss it. A must-see!

The Music Man

May 1 – 16, 2009

Crooked salesman Harold Hill brings trouble to River City, selling the promise of a marching band for the town's wayward kids. The town falls for his con, but he falls for the town librarian. Will she expose him as a fake and a crook? Will he walk the straight and narrow? The answer is Broadway history in this perennial favorite 1958 Tony Award-winning Best Musical by Meredith Willson (it beat West Side Story!)
